

WEEK 2 | FORMAT MASTERY

Four sessions of 60 minutes. All IDs continue into the Answer Book and Error Tracker.

Plan with keywords only. Check register and word range independently before opening the key. In reading, distinguish paragraph purpose from a repeated word.

W2D1 - DAY 1 | 60 MIN

Plan and self-check inside each writing task time. Use the correction period for a targeted revision, not a complete second draft.

00-10 W2D1-E01 | Vocabulary

W2D1-E02 | WRITING PART 2 | 7 min

You have registered for a language exchange.

W2D1-E02-Q01 | 20-30 words

Explain which language you can help others practise and what you hope to improve.

W2D1-E03 | WRITING PART 4 | 30 min

You have registered for a language exchange.

Announcement

The exchange will use pairs instead of groups of six. Partners will be assigned for a whole month, with changes allowed only after contacting the coordinator.

W2D1-E03-Q01 | 40-50 words

Email a friend who is also a member. React to the pairing plan and ask whether your friend wants to suggest a topic for the first meeting.

W2D1-E03-Q02 | 120-150 words

Email the organiser. Explain one benefit and one concern about fixed partners, then propose a fair way to request a change.

Use the remaining 13 minutes: check the key and underline evidence for wrong objective answers; improve one weak sentence or re-record one speaking response; record up to three priority errors with these exact IDs. At the next session, cover the corrections and retrieve them before rereading.

W2D2 - DAY 2 | 60 MIN

Plan and self-check inside each writing task time. Use the correction period for a targeted revision, not a complete second draft.

W2D2-E02-Q03 | 30-40 words

Should the cooperative offer fixed boxes or let members choose every item?

W2D2-E03 | WRITING PART 4 | 30 min

You are a member of a food cooperative.

Announcement

Orders must now be collected between 4 and 6 p.m. on Fridays. Uncollected boxes cannot be stored overnight. A named person may collect on another member's behalf.

W2D2-E03-Q01 | 40-50 words

Email a friend who is also a member. Explain the difficulty to a friend and ask for a specific collection arrangement.

Email the organiser. Describe how the collection window affects working members and suggest a workable adjustment without assuming overnight storage is possible.

Use the remaining 10 minutes: check the key and underline evidence for wrong objective answers; improve one weak sentence or re-record one speaking response; record up to three priority errors with these exact IDs. At the next session, cover the corrections and retrieve them before rereading.

W2D3 - DAY 3 | 60 MIN

After the first speaking run, use part of the correction period to listen back and repeat the weakest response once. Keep the original recording for comparison.

Answer: _____

W2D3-E02 | WHAT HAPPENS TO AN UNDELIVERABLE PARCEL? | 14 min

Match seven paragraphs to seven of the eight headings. Use each selected heading once; one is extra.

A. A small improvement before dispatch

B. A correction needs to reach the right system

C. The journey can run backwards

D. Storage has an operational purpose

E. Why customers should collect every delivery

F. Two sources of information are compared

G. Why the contents are not the first clue

H. An address that passes the first check

1. A parcel can enter a delivery network even when its address is incomplete. The postcode may identify a real street, while the building number is missing. Automated systems accept the broad destination; the difficulty becomes apparent only when a driver needs to find one particular door.

2. At the depot, staff compare the printed label with the electronic booking. Sometimes one contains a detail absent from the other. A flat number entered online may have been cut off when the sender printed the label. Restoring it solves the problem without opening the package.

3. Opening a parcel immediately would create privacy and handling problems. Staff first use the contact details supplied for the sender or recipient. Any later inspection follows the carrier's procedures. The fact that a package is difficult to deliver does not make its contents freely available for investigation.

4. Phoning the driver is not always enough. A corrected address must usually be attached to the parcel's record, otherwise the next shift may see the same incomplete label. A temporary conversation can solve today's question while leaving tomorrow's worker with precisely the original problem.

5. Undeliverable parcels are kept apart from items ready for dispatch. This reduces the chance of repeatedly sending an unresolved package along the same route. The separate area is therefore part of the tracking process, although its shelves may look like a collection of unrelated mistakes.

6. When contact attempts fail, the parcel may return to the sender, subject to the service's rules. That journey still requires a usable address. Senders who omit their own details remove an important recovery route, even if they correctly assume that recipients are the main destination.

7. The most effective check is often unglamorous: read the printed label after producing it. Check that the name, building number and postcode remain visible and that an old label has been removed. A correct online form cannot compensate for an unreadable or contradictory physical label.

W2D3-E02-Q01 Paragraph 1: select its main heading. _____

W2D3-E02-Q02 Paragraph 2: select its main heading. _____

W2D3-E02-Q03 Paragraph 3: select its main heading. _____

1. Describe the photograph.
2. Tell me about a time you received helpful advice while shopping.
3. What makes customer service effective?

W2D3-E03-Q03 | Part 3

1. Compare the photographs.
2. Which way of shopping would suit a busy household better?
3. Why might people choose a less convenient shopping option?

W2D3-E03-Q04 | Part 4

1. Tell me about a purchase that met or failed to meet your expectations.
2. What influenced your judgement?
3. Should the lowest price be the main factor in a buying decision?
