

WEEK 7 | MOCK MODE

Four sessions of 60 minutes. All IDs continue into the Answer Book and Error Tracker.

Treat the first attempt as an assessment. Days 1 and 2 contain all four writing parts in 50 minutes. Identify causes of errors before attempting targeted repair.

W7D1 - DAY 1 | 60 MIN

Writing is one uninterrupted 50-minute block after the 5-minute vocabulary task. Use 3/7/10/30 minutes as a guide; keep answers and models closed until the block ends.

Announcement

The club will introduce a refundable deposit for borrowed tools. The amount will be the same for every tool, and refunds will be processed at the end of each month.

W7D1-E03-Q01 | 40-50 words

Email a friend who is also a member. Explain your reaction to another member and suggest how to plan your next project.

W7D1-E03-Q02 | 120-150 words

Email the organiser. Discuss one advantage and one access problem created by the deposit system, then recommend a specific change to the amount or refund timing.

Use the remaining 5 minutes: check the key and underline evidence for wrong objective answers; improve one weak sentence or re-record one speaking response; record up to three priority errors with these exact IDs. At the next session, cover the corrections and retrieve them before rereading.

W7D3-E02 | SHOULD EVERY PHOTOGRAPH BE KEPT? | 14 min

Match seven paragraphs to seven of the eight headings. Use each selected heading once; one is extra.

- | | |
|---|---|
| A. An imperfect compromise between extremes | B. Quantity can obstruct retrieval |
| C. Storage changes the decision | D. Ownership creates another responsibility |
| E. Descriptions restore missing context | F. How to choose a more expensive camera |
| G. Selection is a form of authorship | H. The best picture is not always the best record |

1. When each exposure used a frame of film, taking a photograph involved a small commitment. Digital storage made that commitment almost disappear. The difficult decision moved from before the picture to after it: which of hundreds of similar images deserves attention, and who will ever make that choice?

2. Keeping everything seems safer than deleting something valuable. Yet a collection becomes less useful when finding one image requires scrolling through dozens of near-identical versions. The cost is paid in attention rather than storage space. A technically complete archive may therefore become practically inaccessible to its owner.

3. A blurred photograph may show the only image of a room before it was demolished. A sharp, attractive one may reveal less. Choosing solely on visual quality can remove evidence that later acquires personal or historical value. Selection depends on the purpose of the collection, which may itself change over time.

4. One approach is to keep a small, clearly organised selection for everyday use while storing the remaining files separately. This avoids forcing immediate deletion decisions. It also acknowledges that the accessible collection and the complete archive serve different purposes, rather than expecting one folder to perform both tasks equally well.

5. A date supplied automatically by a camera cannot identify who appears in the picture or why the event mattered. Brief captions written while memories are fresh can add more value than keeping ten additional shots. Without that information, future viewers may have evidence of an occasion but no way to interpret it.

6. Photographs often show people other than the person maintaining the collection. A picture suitable for private storage may be inappropriate for public sharing. Decisions about preservation and publication should therefore remain separate. The wish to organise an archive does not remove the need to consider the expectations of those depicted.
7. An album tells a story through what it includes and omits. Recognising that does not make selection dishonest; it makes the choices visible. A useful archive allows viewers to understand how it was assembled. The aim is not perfect neutrality, but enough context to prevent a selective collection appearing complete.

W7D3-E02-Q01 Paragraph 1: select its main heading. _____

W7D3-E02-Q02 Paragraph 2: select its main heading. _____

W7D3-E02-Q03 Paragraph 3: select its main heading. _____

W7D3-E03 | SPEAKING | 12 min

Use the full timed sequence. Parts 1-3: no preparation pause. Part 1: 30 seconds per response. Parts 2-3: 45 seconds per response. Part 4: 1 minute preparation and one 2-minute response covering all three questions.

W7D3-E03-Q01 | Part 1

1. What kind of cultural event do you enjoy?
2. How do you find out what is happening locally?
3. Describe a performance you remember.

W7D3-E03-Q02 | Part 2

Photo brief: A musician is tuning a violin backstage. A second performer is checking a sheet of music, and stage curtains are visible behind them.

1. Describe the photograph.
2. Tell me about a time you prepared carefully for an event.
3. Why might experienced performers still feel nervous?

1. Compare the photographs.
2. How might the size of the audience change the experience?
3. Is a more expensive event necessarily a better one?

W7D3-E03-Q04 | Part 4

1. Tell me about an event that did not go as planned.
2. How did people respond?
3. How much should organisers promise when some circumstances are beyond their control?

Preparation notes:

Self-check: ☐ every prompt ☐ reason/example ☐ clear organisation ☐ intelligible ☐ within time

Use the remaining 29 minutes: check the key and underline evidence for wrong objective answers; improve one weak sentence or re-record one speaking response; record up to three priority errors with these exact IDs. At the next session, cover the corrections and retrieve them before rereading.

W7D4 - DAY 4 | 60 MIN
